Media Information

Press Credentials: To order credentials, write to the Braves' Public Relations Department, P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA, 30302. All requests from media outside the immediate Atlanta area must come in writing on appropriate letterhead stationery. Please specify who will pick up the credentials on the day of the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed.

Press Reservations Booth: Credentials may be picked up at the Press Reservations Booth, Window 3-6, near Gate F on the south side of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. The booth is open two hours prior to game time with credentials available then.

Press Gate: To enter Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, a press gate is located near Gate E. Elevators inside the Stadium to the left of the press gate stop at the press box (third) level and the field/clubhouse (first) level.

About the Cover

Catcher Greg Olson and pitcher John Smoltz celebrate the Braves' National League West title-clinching, 5-2 triumph over the Houston Astros on October 5, 1991. The win, which gave the Braves an Atlanta-record 94 victories, set the stage for the team's seven-game decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League Championship Series.

1992 Braves Executives

Ted Turner

Owner

R. E. (Ted) Turner, President and Chairman of the Board of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), the parent company of the Atlanta Braves, received immense satisfaction from the Braves' rise to the top of the National League in 1991. Not since 1982, when the Braves also won the division, has Turner enjoyed baseball as much.

A man of diverse accomplishments, Turner is probably best known for his innovation and foresight in the cable television industry. Under his leadership, Turner Broadcasting has grown into the leading supplier of entertainment and news programming for the basic cable television industry in the United States and a major distributor of programming to broadcasters throughout the world. Included in the company's offerings is a variety of first-class sports programming and events.

In addition to the Braves, major subsidiaries of TBS include: TBS SuperStation, Turner Network Television (TNT), Cable News Network (CNN), Headline News, SportSouth, Turner Program Services, Turner Entertainment Company, Turner Home Entertainment, Turner Publishing, World Championship Wrestling and the NBA Atlanta Hawks.

In December of 1991, Turner acquired the entertainment assets of Hanna-Barbera Production, Inc., including its 3,000-episode library, distribution rights and production facility.

Turner became the owner of the Braves on January 14, 1976, when the National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Group, now Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Turner's ownership of the Braves and the Hawks has helped bring stability to the Atlanta sports scene. He has turned over leadership of both teams to experts, including Stan Kasten, who serves as President of both clubs, and Braves General Manager John Schuerholz, appointed to his post in October of 1990.

Foreseeing the potential of satellite and cable technology over twenty years ago, Turner forged a new frontier in the television industry. He transformed a small UHF television station in Atlanta into the world's first "superstation" by beaming the station's signal via satellite to cable systems across the U.S. Because of their national exposure on TBS, the Braves have fans in all 50 states.

Turner's enthusiasm for sports and improved international relations led him to create the Goodwill Games, an international, multi-sport event held in Moscow in 1986 and in Seattle in 1990. The 1986 Moscow games represented the first time that U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics. TBS will co-sponsor the games in 1994 in St. Petersburg, Russia and in 1998 at a site to be determined later.

Turner revolutionized the television news industry ten years ago, when he started CNN, the first 24-hour all news television station. In addition to providing in-depth live coverage and analysis of breaking events and comprehensive newscasts, CNN also offers a full range of programs covering the latest in business, weather, sports, entertainment, health and science news. Headline News was launched in 1982 to complement CNN's in-depth news coverage with concise, 30-minute newscasts continuously updated 24 hours a day. Both CNN and Headline News received numerous accolades for their combined coverage of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Another of Turner's contributions to the cable industry was the record-breaking launch of TNT as cable's premier network. With a variety of high-quality, original programming, TNT, now just three years old, is seen in more than 54 million homes. The service is home to many of Hollywood's greatest movies and high-profile sporting events, including the National Basketball Association, the National Football League and the 1992 and 1994 Winter Olympics.

Turner's involvement in sports programming took another step forward with the launch of SportSouth in August of 1990. This southeastern regional network offers Atlanta Braves baseball and Atlanta Hawks and Charlotte Hornets basketball, college football, basketball and baseball, auto racing, volleyball, golf, tennis and other major sporting events. A joint venture with Scripps Howard and TCI, the network is available in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina and parts of North Carolina.

Turner was born in Cincinnati on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He also is known as a superior yachtsman, having won national and world sailing titles, including a successful defense of the 1977 America's Cup, the 1979 Fastnet Trophy and four Yachtsman of the Year awards.

Turner is an active environmentalist and has received numerous civic and industry honors, including being named Time Magazine's 1991 Man of the Year.

Turner is a member of the board of directors of the National Cable Television Association. He also sits on the boards of the Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Change and the Greater Yellowstone Coalition.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board of Directors

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Atlanta Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, has witnessed his third National League West division championship team. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982 and confounded the experts by reaching the World Series in 1991.

Bartholomay, involved with the team as a director or owner for 30 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and shifted the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Bartholomay was elected to the Commissioner's Executive Council in December of 1989, becoming the first representative of the Atlanta Braves to serve on that group. The committee, consisting of the league presidents and four owners from each league, is Fay Vincent's top advisory board. He also serves as a member on Major League Baseball's Ownership Committee. A past member of the National League Executive Committee, Bartholomay still serves as a trustee of the Major League Baseball Players benefit plan, and was a member of the committee which recommended Bill White as National League President in the spring of 1989.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of the Board of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., and President of Near North National Group. He's also the director of WMS Industries, Inc., and National Security Bank of Chicago. He serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners and as a director or trustee of many other civic organizations throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

The performance of the Braves in 1991 was a rewarding experience for Stan Kasten, who is now in his sixth season as the team's President and TBS Vice-President for sports teams.

Kasten, 40, probably has more high level sports administration experience than anyone else his age in the country. When he assumed his current duties on November 6, 1986, he simply assumed additional responsibilities for owner Ted Turner.

As the Atlanta Hawks' President, Kasten had already established himself as one of the top executives in the National Basketball Association. He was selected by his peers as the NBA

Executive-of-the-Year for the second straight time after the 1986-87 season. With Kasten in the front office, the Hawks had participated in the NBA playoffs 11 of the last 14 seasons going into the 1991-92 campaign.

Kasten's association with Turner goes back 15 years. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis, when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and the Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named the Hawks' President in April of 1986.

Kasten is a member of the Hawks' Board of Directors, a member of the NBA Board of Governors and a trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame. He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Richard Allen Outreach Center, a crisis hot-line service. During his NBA years, Kasten has also served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee.

Kasten was born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, New Jersey, but grew up in the Freehold, New Jersey area that also produced Bruce Springsteen. One of three children, Stan attended private secondary schools in Baltimore and New York City. He began his college career at Rutgers but transferred to New York University. He graduated from NYU with a degree in Psychology, earned Magna Cum Laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School and played outfield in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years.

Stan, his wife, Helen, and their four children (Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay) live in Sandy Springs. Prior to coming to the Braves, Kasten played softball in several leagues in Atlanta during basketball's off season and still competes in a fast-pitch, over 30 baseball league. He is an admitted television addict and loves Italian food.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice-President / Assistant to the President

Several of the current Atlanta Braves players, David Justice, Ron Gant and Tom Glavine, to name a few, came up through the organization's farm system during part of Hank Aaron's 13-year tenure as a Braves' Vice-President and Director of Player Development. These players contributed greatly to the club's success in 1991 and created a sense of deep pride in Aaron.

Appointed Senior Vice-President and Assistant to the President in December of 1989, Aaron works closely with President Stan Kasten and General Manager John Schuerholz in all phases of the Braves' operations and represents the Braves in community relations activities.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 votes of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Ty Cobb and Tom Seaver have received a higher percentage of the votes cast. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976. He oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing. He also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), seventh in years of service (23), eighth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 11th in years of service (23).

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to the Milwaukee Brewers for outfielder Dave May and minor league pitcher Roger Alexander at the end of the 1974 season. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron, a member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the

Henry Aaron, (Continued)

Braves, is also on the Executive Board of PUSH, the National Board of the NAACP, the National Board of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America and the Atlanta Board of the American Cancer Society. In addition, he serves on the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College and is involved with the Leukemia Society of Atlanta.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice-President and General Manager

Baseball fans knew John Schuerholz was a key member of the highly successful Kansas City Royals' organization for more than two decades before being named Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Atlanta Braves on October 10, 1990.

Fans didn't realize how quickly his 24 years of player-personnel experience, effective management techniques and a positive approach to his job, would help transform the Braves into a pennant winner. The Braves went from having the worst record in baseball in 1990 to an Atlanta-best 94-68 regular season mark, the National League West championship and one of the most dramatic World Series in memory in 1991.

Schuerholz, 51, is a strong believer in developing talent primarily through an efficient scouting and minor league system. He did, however, make several key acquisitions before the 1991 season (Terry Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard, Juan Berenguer, Mike Heath, Deion Sanders, Otis Nixon). Then, seeing the potential for a pennant as the season progressed, he kept fine-tuning the roster, acquiring Alejandro Pena, and promoting Brian Hunter, Keith Mitchell and Mark Wohlers.

The end result was the most exciting season in Atlanta Braves history and several post-season awards for Schuerholz. These included being named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writer's Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz joined the Royals in August of 1968 as an administrative assistant and was involved in the expansion draft which created the first ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named assistant farm director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President-Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, he succeeded Joe Burke as Executive Vice-President and General Manager.

Schuerholz, a junior high school teacher in Baltimore for four and one-half years, began his baseball career as an assistant in the minor league and scouting departments of the Baltimore Orioles in 1967 and 1968. He is a graduate of Towson (MD) State University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was named the Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson State's Hall of Fame in 1973.

Schuerholz and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina and a son, Jonathan.

Dean Taylor

Assistant General Manager

Dean Taylor, one of the bright, young minds in baseball, was named the Atlanta Braves Assistant General Manager on November 1, 1990. When he came to Atlanta, Taylor rejoined General Manager John Schuerholz, with whom he had worked for ten years in Kansas City.

Taylor's responsibilities include player contract negotiations, baseball operations administration and waiver and rule compliance. He also works closely with the scouting and player development departments.

Taylor, 40, spent the 1990 season as Manager of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball. Before assuming his post in the Commissioner's Office in April of 1990, Taylor had worked for the Royals since 1980. He served as the Royals' Administrative Assistant for Minor League Operations and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development until being named Assistant to the General Manager in November of 1985. He was a general manager on the minor league level for five seasons prior to joining the Kansas City staff.

A native of Roseburg, OR, Taylor graduated from Claremont (CA) College in 1973 with a B.A. degree in Economics and Ohio University in 1975 with a Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

Taylor and his wife, Susan, live in metropolitan Atlanta. He has one son, Chris.

Charles Sanders

Sr. Vice-President, Administration and Finance

Charles Sanders, currently in his fifth year as Senior Vice-President / Administration and Finance, started with the Braves one year after the team moved to Atlanta from Milwaukee.

Sanders joined the Braves as Chief Accountant in 1967. He was named Controller in 1973, Business Manager in 1976 and Vice-President and Business Manager in 1977. The Braves promoted him to his present position in 1988.

Sanders also serves as the Braves' corporate Secretary, President and Treasurer of the Stadium Club, Inc., and Secretary/Treasurer of Braves Productions, Inc. His board memberships include the Southern League, the South Atlantic League, the Stadium Club, Braves Productions and the National American Insurance, LTD.

Sanders attended South Georgia Junior College and received a B.B.A. Degree in accounting from Georgia State University. He and his wife, Shana, and two daughters, Nicole and Dana, live in Marietta.

Wayne Long

Vice-President, Marketing and Broadcasting

Wayne Long enters his fourth season as a Braves' Vice-President and Director of Marketing and Broadcasting, but his 20th with the organization overall.

For 11 of those years, he lent his broadcasting sales and management expertise to the Atlanta Hawks and, for three years, to the Chiefs, Atlanta's entry in the North American Soccer League.

Long, who started with the Braves as Manager of Broadcast Sales in 1973, was named Director of Radio Operations for the Braves, Hawks and Chiefs in 1976. He became the Braves' Director of Broadcasting in 1986, their

Director of Marketing and Broadcasting in 1987 and assumed his current position in 1989.

Long received a bachelor of science degree in management from Ohio State and an MBA in marketing from Georgia State.

Long, his wife, Sandra and their three sons, Steven; 18, Kevin, 15; and Justin, 13, reside in Dunwoody.

Braves Bit

Did You Know:.... In Billy Hitchcock's first game as the Braves' manager, on August 9, 1966, the second largest crowd in Atlanta history (52,270) saw the Braves beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 2-1. Eddie Mathews broke up a classic pitcher's duel between Denny Lemaster and Sandy Koufax with a homer on an 0-2 count in the bottom of the ninth inning.

BORN: May 21, 1941 at Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Bobby Cox, always quick to credit others while downplaying his own role in his teams' successes, hasn't changed, even after guiding the 1991 Braves to the National League pennant and one of the most dramatic World Series in history.

He says none of it would have been possible without the superb effort of the players, the hard work of the coaches and the support of the front office. But, obviously, Cox, who has an uncanny ability to utilize his personnel to the fullest, played a major role in the team's turnaround last season. Cox's accomplishments brought him several post-season honors, including being named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press and National League Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and The Sporting News. Cox became the first manager to earn the A.P. accolade in both leagues, having also won it while with Toronto in 1985.

Cox, 50, managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He received numerous votes for N.L. Manager of the Year in 1980, when Atlanta was 81-80, its best record in six years.

Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth. The eventual World Champion Kansas City Royals eliminated Toronto in a seven-game American League Championship Series.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named The Sporting News Major League Manager of the Year and accorded a similar honor by the Baseball Writers of America.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced many of the team's current standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities June 22, 1990, then was able to devote fulltime to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox, also has impressive early baseball credentials. He received a reported $40,000 bonus to sign with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1959. He won the Pioneer League batting title with Great Falls in 1963, hitting .337 with 19 home runs and 85 RBI. He led his league in fielding percentage on three occasions (1961 as a second baseman, 1963 and 1965 as a third baseman).

He spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, Cox was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, Oklahoma. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

HT: 6'2"

WT: 205

OPENING DAY AGE: 52

BORN: August 21, 1939, at Vinita, OK

RESIDES: Peachtree City, GA

Jim Beauchamp, who capped a 16-year minor league managerial career with three seasons as the Richmond Braves skipper, enters his second campaign as Atlanta's dugout coach in 1992.

Beauchamp, 52, who played for the Atlanta Crackers and briefly for the Braves in the 1960's, compiled a 218-214 record, including a first-place finish in 1989, at Richmond from 1988-1990.

He had managed in the Braves farm system since 1985, when he began a three-year stint at Greenville. Of his 16 years managing, he spent four at AA and 12 at AAA. His first managerial job came at Columbus (GA) in 1975, when he led his club to a second-place tie in the Southern League. Beauchamp moved on to the AAA level at Memphis in 1976, and over the next three seasons, guided Memphis and Charleston into the playoffs. Charleston captured the Governor's Cup in 1977 and finished first in the regular season in 1978.

After a final year at Charleston in 1978, Beauchamp piloted Indianapolis for two years, before moving on to manage Syracuse from 1982 through 1984. During his term at Greenville, Beauchamp worked with several of the younger members of the current Atlanta team, including Ron Gant and Tom Glavine. He directed the 1989 R-Braves to the International League championship.

Beauchamp began his professional career in 1958, and played professionally for 17 years. His best minor league season came in 1963, when he was named the Texas League Most Valuable Player after hitting .337, with 31 homers and 105 RBI. In 1964 Beauchamp tied for 2nd in the Pacific Coast League with 31 homers and then paced the International League when he belted 25 homers for the Richmond Braves in 1966. The Vinita, OK native, whose career was marred by injuries, wore the Major League uniforms of the Cardinals, Astros, Braves, Reds and Mets, and appeared in the 1973 World Series with New York.

Jim, his wife, Pam, and daughters Shana and Lauren, live in Peachtree City. Jim has three other children, Kash, Tim and Ann Rene.

Pat Corrales #39

First Base Coach

HT: 6'0"      WT: 205
OPENING DAY AGE: 51
BORN: March 20, 1941,
at Los Angeles, CA
RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Pat Corrales is in his third season as the Braves first base coach, and his 34th year in professional baseball. Corrales joined the Braves as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989, and joined Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reigns.

In his nine years as a Major League manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came in 1978 with the Rangers, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, remaining with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led Cleveland to an 84-78 record, (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place, (their closest finish since 1959).

Corrales' 1986 team became only the 10th team in Major League history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA. He became only the fourth manager in Major League history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach five times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the Majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Atlanta. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason. In his spare time, Pat enjoys golf.

Hitting Coach

HT: 6'3"

WT: 220

OPENING DAY AGE: 50

BORN: Nov. 7, 1941, at Zanesville, OH

RESIDES: Stone Mountain, GA

Batting instructor Clarence Jones, the man David Justice and Ron Gant credit most for their award-winning 1990 seasons, continued his success with the 1991 Braves.

Justice had 87 RBI's in 109 games, Gant enjoyed his second straight 30-30 season, Terry Pendleton hit a career-high .319 and Jeff Treadway hit .320. Virtually everyone made offensive contributions to the Braves' success, and credit Jones with helping them throughout the season.

Having spent his entire coaching career with the Braves organization, Jones joined the parent club as batting instructor in May of 1988 and served as the club's first base coach from 1989 into June of 1990. Manager Bobby Cox then elected to have Jones concentrate more on working with the hitters in the dugout.

Jones first worked with the Braves in 1984 as a minor-league instructor before moving on to the staff at Sumter for the 1989 campaign. He then returned to his original role as instructor in April of 1988 before joining the coaching staff in Atlanta.

Originally signed by the Phillies in 1959, Jones earned minor-league honors as the Northwest League's Player of the Year in 1964, posting a .344 batting average with 33 homers and a league-leading 120 RBI while playing for Salem. After spending parts of two seasons with the Chicago Cubs, he went on to play in Japan from 1970-1977, becoming the first American player to capture the Japanese home run title in 1974. Jones wound up batting .311 with 23 HR's.

Clarence and his wife, the former Daphne Brown, reside in Stone Mountain. His favorite hobby is golf.

Leo Mazzone #54

Pitching Coach

HT: 5' 10"      WT: 190
OPENING DAY AGE: 43
BORN: October 16, 1948, at Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Rawlings, MD

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but no season was more rewarding than 1991, when Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award, the top four starters essentially did not miss a turn, John Smoltz won 12 games after the All-Star break, Steve Avery progressed further than expected and Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena combined for a no-hitter.

Mazzone, 43, was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the same day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as the team's manager.

Before rejoining Atlanta, Mazzone had served as the pitching coach for the Richmond Braves since 1988. After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed at Class A Corpus Christi of the Gulf States League (which became the Lone Star League in 1977) and led his teams to two consecutive first-place finishes in the 1976 and 1977 campaigns.

Mazzone piloted at Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position in the Braves' organization as a minor league pitching instructor from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach at Durham in 1983-84, and also managed at AA Greenville in '84 from July 21 through the end of the season. In 1985, after an 18-year minor league career as a player, coach and manager, Mazzone reached the Major League level for the first time when he joined the Braves' as a co-pitching coach. He returned to the Braves' farm system in 1986-87 as a coach at Sumter and Greenville.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo in the Texas league in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.26 ERA, but missed by four innings pitched from qualifying for the league ERA title.

Leo and his wife, Gregg, reside in Rawlings, MD, in the off-season. They have three boys: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas. His hobbies are Notre Dame football, Boston Celtics basketball and landscaping.

Jimmy Williams #22

Third Base Coach

HT: 5'11"

WT: 170

OPENING DAY AGE: 48

BORN: Oct. 4, 1943 at Arroyo Grande, CA

RESIDES: Dunedin, FL

Jimmy Williams and Bobby Cox were reunited in the dugout on June 25, 1990, when newly-appointed manager Cox added Williams to his staff as the Braves third-base coach. Previously, Williams had performed the same duties under Cox at Toronto from 1982-85, when Cox piloted the Blue Jays. Williams originally joined the Braves on October 4, 1989, and served as a minor league instructor before assuming his present duties with the Braves.

The 1992 season marks Williams' 26th in professional ball, with the last 18 years spent in a coaching or managerial capacity. As manager of Toronto from 1986 to 1989, Williams won 281 games and lost 241, with the Blue Jays finishing only two games out of first place in his last two full seasons. He had signed with Toronto as coach in 1980, two years before Cox's arrival.

After retiring as an active player in 1971 (except for a 6-game stint in 1975), Williams obtained his first managing job at the Angels' Quad Cities affiliate in the Midwest League in 1974, leading his club to a first-place finish in the first half in the Southern Division. The only sub-.500 season Williams endured was in 1975 at El Paso of the Texas League. He was promoted the following year to Salt Lake City, where he guided his team to a 90-54 mark and a first place finish. Williams moved on to the Cardinals' organization at Springfield in 1978, ending the campaign in third place. In 1979 he returned to Salt Lake City, finishing second in the regular season, before winning the Pacific Coast League championship.

Williams, a shortstop throughout his career, played semi-pro ball in South Dakota ('63) and Alaska ('64), before beginning his pro career at Waterloo of the Midwest League in 1965. His Major League career consisted of 13 games with the Cardinals from 1966-67, collecting his first hit off future Hall of Famer Juan Marichal.

Jimmy and his wife, Peggy, have four children: Monica, Brady, Shawn and Jenna. Jimmy enjoys fishing, hunting, and watching movies in his spare time.

Ned Yost #52

Bullpen Coach

HT: 6' 1"

WT: 185

OPENING DAY AGE: 36

BORN: August 19, 1955, at Eureka, CA

RESIDES: Marietta, GA

At 36, Ned Yost is the youngest member of Bobby Cox's coaching staff.

Yost, the Braves' bullpen coach, made his Major League coaching debut in 1991, after having spent the previous three seasons managing the club's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with such heralded prospects as Ryan Klesko, Matt Turner, Keith Mitchell and Dennis Burlingame.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft, and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the Minor League draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980, and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers, before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. He saw his final Major League action when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned Yost, (Continued)

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA, in the off-season. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jennifer and Andrew. Ned's hobbies include hunting and fishing.

Braves Bit

Did You Know:.... Tony Cloninger pitched all 13 innings in the Braves 3-2 loss to the Pittsburgh Pirates on opening night, April 12, 1966. The Braves runs came on Joe Torre's two solo homers, including one in the bottom of the 13th after Willie Stargell had broken a 1-1 tie with a two-run blast in the top of the inning.

1991 SEASON:-- Began season with a bang by putting together a 7-game hitting streak from April 11-20 (9x24, .375) ...Bone chips in his right elbow limited him to a career low 49 games ...Underwent successful surgery on July 15 ...Went on downhill slide by batting .167 (15x90) before being placed on the 15-day disabled list on July 13 ...Threw out 13 of 54 runners (24%) attempting to steal.

PRO CAREER: 1990:--Played in 122 games for the second consecutive season, matching his third-highest total over a 13-year career ...Made 101 starts, including 99 behind the plate ...Also filled in for three games in right field, and saw duty in one game at shortstop ...Stroked the 1,000th hit of his career off Chicago's Scott Radinsky at Detroit on July 18 ...Opened campaign with a rush, batting .444 (16x36) in April ...Went 4x4 at Milwaukee on May 8 ...Kept his batting average over .400 through May 10 (27x67, .403) ...Among his 7 homers, Heath belted four in a 12-game stretch June 27-July 15 ...Was batting .291 as late as September 10, before a 5x43 finish left final batting average at .270 ...Gunned down 24 of 108 runners attempting to steal (22%).

1989:--Landed Tigers' catching job on June 10, and saw little time off after back-up receiver Matt Nokes was lost to knee injury on June 16 ...From June 10 through rest of season, Heath appeared in 95 of 104 games ...Set personal Tiger highs with 10 homers and 43 RBI ...Delivered a career-high five hits at Toronto on June 12 ...Cracked two homers in a game twice, May 17 vs Chicago and June 30 at Baltimore ...Ripped righthanders at a .317 clip over season ...Topped A.L. backstops with 66 assists, trailing only Los Angeles's Mike Scioscia (82) and San Diego's Benito Santiago (81) ...Nailed 33 of 105 would-be-base stealers (31%) ...Displayed trademark versatility by appearing at third base and left field ...Sidelined July 7-17 with bruised left thumb.

1988:--Platooned with Matt Nokes and performed credibly, batting .247 in 86 games ...Marked a strong comeback from early season plate problems, when Heath was batting only .151 (8x53) through May 20 ...Caught fire from May 25-September 4, hitting .333 (43x129) ...Slammed two homers off Seattle's Mark Langston in a 7-6 win on July 6 ...Collected seven hits in 17 at-bats (.412) from August 28-September 4 ...Nabbed 10 of 39 runners attempting to steal (26%).

1987:--Checked in with a .281 batting average, matching his career high, and played every position except pitcher ...Hit .301 in first half ...Reeled off a seven-game hitting streak (15x32, .469) from May 6-13 ...Twice matched his career-high with four-RBI performances in victories over Oakland on May 9 and California on July 11 ...Went 2x7 with one homer and two RBI in L.C.S. vs. Minnesota.

1986:--N.L. debut with St. Louis proved to be a struggle, as Heath managed only a .205 BA in 65 games, while committing 10 errors ...Dealt to Detroit on August 9, and hit .265 for Tigers in 30 contests ...Hit in eight straight games from August 17-30 (10x27, .370) ...Swatted an inside-the-park homer on September 10 vs. Milwaukee.

Heath (Continued)

1985:--Matched previous years' career best of 13 homers and recorded 55 RBI ...Worked mainly as a catcher, but also put in time at third base (13 games) and the outfield (35 games) ...Hit in 10 straight games from May 3-17 ...Produced five consecutive multi-hit games July 19-25 (12x19,.632) ...Set a career high with 6 triples.

1984:--Established career highs in games (140), at-bats (475), runs (49), hits (118), doubles (21), homers (13) and RBI (64) ...Compiled a nine-game hitting streak (12x33, .364), April 12-22, with 6 RBI ...Went on a 13x31 (.419) tear May 20-29, with two homers and 8 RBI ...Had a seven-game hitting streak (15x30), with 1 homer and 9 RBI ...Posted 13 RBI in 10 games from July 3 to August 9.

1983:--Batted .281 in 96 games ...Began campaign on a .341 binge (15x44) in 14 games through June 18 ...In a six-game hitting streak from July 14-20, Heath hit .545 (12x22) ...Maintained .300 batting average through September 2.

1982:--Appeared in over 100 games (101) for first time in career ...Best offensive stretch of season was an eight-game hitting streak from July 27 to August 3 (11x32, .344).

1981:--Appointed by manager Billy Martin as Oakland's starting catcher ...Blasted homers in three consecutive games at Boston, August 27-29 ...Went 2x6 in L.C.S. vs. New York ...Caught 27 of 57 attempted base stealers (47%).

1980:--Batted .243 in 92 games ...Stroked 14 hits in 38 at-bats (.368) from April 23 to May 11.

1979:--Sent to Texas in a 10-player, off-season deal, Heath hit .270 in 54 games for AAA Tuscon ...A's acquired him on June 15 and witnessed a memorable debut, as Heath belted his first two M.L. homers in his first game on June 19 vs. Kansas City.

1978:--After batting .295 for AA West Haven, Heath was promoted to Yankees and made M.L. debut on June 3 at Oakland (no at-bats) ...Went 0x3 in his second M.L. game, then erupted for a 13-game hitting streak (15x48, .313), which remains his career-high ...Caught one inning in Game 5 of World Series vs. Los Angeles.

Braves Bit

Did You Know:.... On opening day, 1946, approximately 5,000 people left the park with green paint on their clothes. The freshly painted seats hadn't quite dried. In the following day's newspapers, the club ran "an apology to Braves fans." Management vowed to reimburse those patrons who's clothing had been damaged by the paint. As a result, 13,000 claims came in, some from as far away as California, Nebraska and Florida. Five-thousand were paid, with the average claim costing the Braves $1.50.

ACQUIRED: Was the Braves' 3rd selection in the fourth round of the 1985 June draft.

1991 SEASON:-- Despite missing nearly two months of the season with a strained back, Justice amassed numbers that would have done most players proud in a 162-game schedule ...Collected 21 HR's and 87 RBI in only 109 games ...Saved the Braves with possibly the most crucial homer in Atlanta history, a two-run shot in the 9th inning off Reds' Rob Dibble to lift the Braves to a 7-6 victory at Cincinnati on October 1 ...Braves trailed Jose Rijo 6-0 in that game after one inning ...Followed up on '90 Rookie of Year honors with an early-season tear that culminated in Justice receiving May Player-of-the-Month honors after batting .381 with 5 homers and an N.L.-best 51 RBI ...Became first Brave besides Dale Murphy to ever win award more than once (also won award in August of 1990) ...Had a league-leading 51 RBI when he was disabled on June 27, including 11 HR's and a .297 batting average ...Earned N.L. Player of the Month honors after a sensational May when he hit .381 with 5 homers and 28 RBI ...Season-high batting average was .325 through June 9 ...Twice struck for two-homer games on June 9 vs. Montreal and September 9 vs. San Francisco ...Latter game saw Justice post a career-high 5 RBI ...Stroked four homers in three games from September 7-9 ...After returning to lineup on August 20, hit 10 homers and totaled 36 RBI in 45 games ...Braves went 31-14 after Justice returned through remainder of the season ...Starred at plate with runners in scoring position, batting .347 (43x124) ...In 162 games from August 4, 1990, when Justice took over right field, through September 29, 1991, he hit .298 with 40 homers and 133 RBI ...Tallied at least 1 RBI in 7 straight games from May 1-10, one short of the franchise record accomplished 6 other times (last was Bob Horner, 1980) ...Led Braves outfielders with 9 assists.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:-- Limited to a .200 batting average (5x25) in L.C.S., with one homer and 2 RBI ...Solo homer in Game 1 enabled Braves to avert shutout in 5-1 loss at Pittsburgh ...In Game 2, Justice scored the contest's only run on a Mark Lemke 6th-inning double ...Batted .259 (7x27) in Series, with two homers and a team-high 6 RBI ...Clubbed a solo shot in Game 3 in Atlanta off Twins' Scott Erickson, and began Braves' 14-run barrage in Game 5 with a two-run homer off Kevin Tapani ...His 5 RBI in Game 5 set a Braves' franchise record in Series play and tied the N.L. Series record ...Marked the 14th 5 RBI game in Series history ...With two homers and two stolen bases in the Series, Justice became the first multi-homer, multi-steal player in a Series since Kirk Gibson of the 1984 Tigers.

PRO CAREER: 1990:-- Recognized as the heir apparent in right field to Dale Murphy after being named the 1990 N.L. Rookie of the Year by the BBWAA and The Sporting News ...Became first Braves' rookie to capture BBWAA honors since Bob Horner in 1978; Craig McMurtry took TSN rookie award in 1983 ...After recovering from a broken left cheek bone received in a spring training game, Justice was sent to extended spring training on a rehabilitation assignment ...Reported to AAA Richmond in late April and dominated International League pitching, hitting .356 (16x45) in 12 games, with 2 homers and 7 RBI ...Recalled by Atlanta on May 16 to replace vertigo-stricken Nick Esasky at 1B, although Justice had played only 1 game there at AAA before his promotion ...Was hitting .243 with 8 homers and 28 RBI in 68 games at the time the Braves traded Murphy on Aug. 4 ...Justice returned to his natural right field position after the deal, and proceeded to unleash an assault on N.L. pitching that captured the attention of the national media ...He exploded in August for 11 homers, 29 RBI and a .301 average in 30 games, including outbursts of 10 homers (and 20 RBI) in 12 games August 7-16, and 11 homers in 16 games August 7-20 ...The last Brave before Justice to hit 10 homers in 12 games was Bob Horner in July 1980 ...Ozzie Virgil was the last Brave to hit 11 homers in 16 games in April-May 1987 (Horner hit 11 in 15 games in July 1980) ...Justice's power surge was the most impressive by a M.L. rookie since Oakland's Mark McGwire slammed 11 homers in 15 games in May 1987 ...Earned N.L. Player of the Week honors for week of August 6-12 (.414, 12x29, 2 2B's, 6 HR's, 12 RBI, 1.103 SLG%, 7 runs scored in 7 G's) ...Justice was recognized again for his outstanding August by being named the N.L. Player of the Month ...He became the first Brave to win the award since Murphy claimed it in August of 1986, and the first Brave rookie to ever win the honor ...Justice was also the first rookie to be named Player/Pitcher of the Month since the Cardinals' Todd Worrell in July of 1986 ...Justice belted the most homers in a month since Virgil hit 13 in May of 1987, and collected the most RBI in a single month since Murphy drove in 30 in August 1986 ...He erupted for 5 homers in 2 days (3 games) Aug. 7-8 and became the first Atlanta Brave to ever hit 2 homers in 2 consecutive games August 7-8 ...Justice kept right on rolling in September, hitting .344 (33x96) with 9 homers and 21 RBI in 28 games ...He connected for his first M.L. grand slam on September 25 at Cincinnati off Norm Charlton ...The slam gave Justice 20 homers in 50 games after assuming his right field duties ...He led all M.L. rookies with 28 homers and 78 RBI, and tied Detroit's Cecil Fielder for the most homers after the All-Star break with 23 ...Justice, who led the loop with 11 homers in August, again led the N.L. with 9 homers in September ...All told, he hit .335 after 8/4 (69x206, 20HR's, 49RBI) ...His .535 SLG% was T5th in the N.L., and his 28 homers ranked 8th ...His home run ratio of 1 every 15.7 AB's was T4th in the circuit, and having grounded into only 2 DP's in 439 at-bats, his GDP ratio was the 2nd in the N.L. to Lonnie Smith's ...Justice amassed a .746 SLG% 8/7-9/25, and a .688 SLG% after August 6, raising his SLG% from .402 to .535 ...He excelled against LHP, batting .366 (48x131, 10HR's) ...After the break, Justice destroyed southpaws at a .469 clip (38x81) with 9 homers ...Hit .606 (20x33) with 5 homers and 10 RBI from September 1 to end of season.

1989:--Had two tours of duty in Atlanta in '89 ...Recalled May 23 from AAA Richmond after Lonnie Smith suffered an ankle sprain on May 20 ...Went 1x20 (.050) before returning to Richmond on June 2 ...Called up again on September 6, and went 11x31 (.355) in 8 games to close out '89 ...Led Richmond with 12 homers and was second with 12 steals ...Was tabbed 9th-best prospect in International League by BASEBALL AMERICA.

1988:--Started year, his 4th in professional baseball, at AAA Richmond, but, after hitting .203 in 70 games, joined AA Greenville in early July and proceeded to hit .319 with 7 homers the rest of the month ...Named Southern League Player-of-the-Week for July 24-30 ...Finished with a .278 batting average, 9 homers and 37 RBI in 58 games for G'ville.

1987:--Spent the '87 season at AA Greenville ...Hampered by broken wrist ...Was honored as winner of the Bill Lucas Award (awarded to the Braves minor leaguer who best exemplifies the spirit, character, sportsmanship and humanitarianism of the Braves' late GM).

1986:--Despite being promoted to Durham on June 16, Justice ranked second on Sumter in homers (10) and third in RBI (61) ...Combined to hit .290 with 22 homers and 105 RBI ...Enjoyed a 5-hit game vs. Florence on April 17; two days later belted a grand slam against Greensboro.

1991 SEASON:-- Crafty lefthander pocketed 15 wins, his second-highest total in a 10-year career ...When Leibrandt recorded his 15th victory on September 12 vs. San Diego, Atlanta became the first N.L. team to have 3 lefties with 15-plus victories since the 1917 New York Giants ...Stymied N.L. hitters over first 16 starts, compiling a 2.76 ERA through June 27 ...On that night, he blanked Astros on three hits in a 3-0 triumph ...Struggled during next 7 outings, yielding 33 ER's in 37.0 innings pitched, after surrendering only 33 earned runs in his first 16 starts ...Then righted himself and ran off a six-game winning streak over his next 10 starts, allowing just 11 earned runs in 73.1 IP (1.35 ERA) ...Finished tied for 2nd in the N.L. with his 36 starts and tied for 9th with 229.2 innings pitched ...Struck out 13 Expos on August 27 to set a career-high in his 281st M.L. start ...Tossed 22 quality starts in his 36 outings.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Turned in solid start in only L.C.S. outing in Game 4 in Atlanta, an eventual 3-2 Atlanta loss in 10 innings (6.2 IP, 8 H, 2 R, 1 ER, 3 BB, 6 K's) ...Started Game 1 of the World Series at Minnesota and lost a 5-2 decision (4.0 IP, 7 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 1 BB, 3 K's) ...Made first relief appearance as a Brave in 11th inning of Game 6 at Minnesota, only to see Kirby Puckett lift the Twins to a 4-3 victory with a leadoff homer, which knotted the Series at three games each.

PRO CAREER: 1990:--Performed beyond expectations after coming back from slight injury to his left rotator cuff ...Leibrandt sustained injury while working out in early February, and began season on disabled list ...After 2 AA rehabilitation appearances, Leibrandt made his Braves debut on June 3 at San Diego, and received no decision in a 4-2 win in 10 innings (7.0IP, 5H,2R, 1ER, 1BB, 3K's) ...Hurled complete game in second appearance on June 9 vs. San Francisco (9H, 1ER, 0BB, 4K's) in a 5-3 Atlanta victory ...Fired a shutout on his fourth start, June 19 vs. Cincinnati in the second game of a DH (6H, 0BB, 1K) ...Spun a 2-0 mark with a 1.41 ERA in his first 4 starts ...Performance fell off in his next 8 starts (2-5, 5.53ERA, 53.2IP, 33ER), but then Leibrandt reeled off a superb 10-game stretch, going 5-5 with a 1.76 ERA between Aug. 9-September 22 ...In 6 starts between August 28-September 22, the veteran lefty went 4-2 with a magnificent 0.81 ERA (4ER's, in 44.2IP), including 3 complete games and 1 shutout ...Of his 24 outings, 15 were quality starts (6.0+ IP,3ER's or less) ...His 2 shutouts were T9th in the N.L....Selected as the N.L. Player-of-the-Week for week of August 27-September 2 (2-0, 0.00ERA, 16.0IP, 15H, 0BB, 3K's) ...Earned his 100th career victory on September 7 at San Diego (9.0IP, 4H, 1R, 0ER, 5K's).

1989:--Leibrandt's 5-11 mark in '89 ended a string of 5 consecutive winning seasons, which saw him deposit his name in Kansas City's record books in numerous lifetime categories: T4th in starts (187), 6th in wins (76) and IP (1,257), 7th in strikeouts (347), T7th in shutouts (10) and 8th in complete games (34) ...Pitched effectively in April (2-2, 2.72 ERA in 6 starts) but slumped thereafter, winning his final game at Chicago, 6-3 on

Leibrandt (Continued)

June 30 ...Moved to bullpen in August and posted a 1.64 ERA in 6 relief outings over remainder of season ...Blanked the Red Sox at Fenway Park, 10-0 going the distance in a 5-hit shutout on April 23 ...Over his 5 years with Kansas City, Leibrandt pitched 7.0 innings or more and allowed 3 earned runs or less in 131 of his 187 starts (70%).

1988:--Came on strong after 3-10 start to record 5th straight winning season ...Lost only one game after July 15, while compiling a 2.49 ERA over final 18 starts ...Hurled career-high 243.0 innings ...Threw a 2-hit shutout at Oakland on June 15, as Kansas City stopped the A's 2-0 ...Solid pitching in July (3-1, 1.99ERA) and August (4-0, 3.21ERA) earned him back-to-back Royals' Pitcher-of-the-Month honors ...Did not surrender more than 2 runs in 5 of 6 July outings ...Recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts in a 4-1 complete game triumph at Baltimore, July 31 ...Picked up his second shutout of season August 31, 1-0 victory over Cleveland ...Went 5-0, July 31-August 31 ...Led Royals' staff with 8 runners picked off first base.

1987:--Registered impressive numbers, ranking 6th in A.L. in ERA (3.41), and T3rd in loop with 3 shutouts ...Gave best performance of career on May 16 allowing only a 6th-inning bunt single by Brewers Bill Schroeder in a 13-0 Royals win at KC., Represented first 1-hitter for a Royals' pitcher since Vida Blue turned the trick against Seattle in 1982 ...Selected as Royals' Pitcher-of-the-Month in July and August.

1986:--Paced Royals staff in wins (14), starts (34) complete games (8) and IP (231.1) ...Spun a 4-0 record in April, becoming the third K.C. pitcher to do so ...Was sole K.C. hurler to work over 200 innings.

1985:--Royals' World Championship season was due in part to Leibrandt's excellent campaign ...Winning 17 of 26 decisions, Leibrandt compiled a 2.69 ERA, the second-lowest in A.L. and owest ERA among all-time K.C. southpaw starters ...His .654 winning percentage ranked 4th in junior circuit ...Strongest efforts came in April (3-0, 1.69ERA) and September (4-1, 0.91ERA), becoming the only hurler in league to capture A.L. Pitcher-of-the-Month honors twice ...Topped Royals' staff in playoffs and World Series with 31.2 innings and 16 strikeouts ...Came out of bullpen in Game 7 of A.L.C.S., allowing only 2 earned runs in 5.1 IP in middle relief, and was the winning pitcher in K.C.'s 6-2 pennant clincher over Toronto ...Dropped 6-1 decision at Toronto in Game 1, and carried shutout into 9th inning of Game 4, before losing, 3-1 ...In Game 2 of World Series vs. St. Louis, he limited Cards to 2 hits through first 8 innings, but saw Redbirds strike for 4 runs in 9th en route to a 4-2 win ...Held Cards in check in Game 6 (7.2IP, 4H, 1R, 1ER, 2BB, 4K), but left contest trailing 1-0 (Was taken off the hook in 9th as KC rallied to a 2-1 triumph) ...During '85 post-season, K.C. scored 6 runs in Leibrandt's 4 starts.

1984:--Earned promotion to K.C. after fashioning a 7-1 record and a 1.24 ERA in 9 starts at AAA Omaha, including 3 shutouts ...After May 30 recall, Leibrandt won his K.C. debut June 1 vs. Minnesota (8.0IP, 6H, 1ER, 2BB, 3K) ...Proceeded to pitch into 7th inning in 19 of 23 starts ...Permitted 3 runs or less in 16 starts ...Won K.C.'s division-clinching, 6-5 victory at Oakland on September 28 ...Allowed only 3 hits in 8.0 innings pitched in Game 3 of the A.L.C.S. at Detroit, but lost a 1-0 decision.

1982:--Went 5-7 for Reds in 36 games, with 25 coming in relief ...Recorded his only 2 M.L. saves that season.

1983:--Traded to Kansas City from Cincinnati on June 7, 1983, (in exchange for Bob Tufts) Leibrandt split time at Indianapolis and AAA Omaha ...Compiled a 6-6 mark with O-Royals with a 4.57 ERA in 16 starts ...In his 106.1 IP, Leibrandt walked 42 and struck out 72.

1981:--Spent most of season at AAA Indianapolis, finishing with a solid 2.93 ERA in 25 starts ...Went 1-1 in 7 games for Reds, his 1 win coming in a 5-hit shutout at Houston.

1980:--Tossed a 5-hit shutout in first M.L. start, a 5-0 win over Braves (9.0IP, 5H, 0R, 3BB, 5K) ...Went 10-9 for Reds in 36 outings.

1979:--Although only 8-14 at Indianapolis, turned in a fine 2.94 ERA in 27 games ...Recalled by Reds on September 8, and made M.L. debut in relief

Braves Bit

Did You Know:.... Tommy McCarthy, a Braves outfielder at the turn of the century, was partly responsible for a rule change. It seems that McCarthy developed a habit of intentionally bobbling balls hit to him on a fly, bobbling them as he ran toward the infield, thus keeping the runners on their bases. Because of him, the rule was changed so that runners could leave the base as soon as the outfielder touched the ball.

1991 SEASON:-- Teamed with Mike Stanton to give Braves arguably the two top lefty set-up men in the majors ...Appeared in 46 games in relief, going 4-3 with 4 saves and a 2.50 ERA ...Came out of bullpen to fill fifth starter's role for 4 outings in September, winning his only decision and spinning a 2.79 ERA (6 ER's in 19.1 IP) ...Entered the history books along with Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 when the three hurled a combined no-hitter over the Padres ...Represented the first combined no-hitter in N.L. history, and the Braves' first no-hitter since Phil Niekro stopped San Diego in 1973 ...Permitted only five earned runs in 32.1 innings pitched (1.39 ERA) April 19-July 7 ...Placed on 15-day D.L. on August 9 (strained right side muscle) and was activated on August 24 ...Did not give up an earned run in last five relief appearances of season (5.1 IP) after return from D.L. ...Allowed seven of his 13 inherited runners to score; first batters went only 8x34 (.235) off Mercker ...Saved 6 games in 8 opportunities.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Suffered the loss in only L.C.S. appearance in Game 4 (0.2 IP, 0 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 0 K's) ...In Game 3 of World Series, did not allow a run in 12th inning after inheriting first and third and one out situation with score tied at 3-3, and Twins attempting to take a three-games-to-none lead in the Series ...Mercker then struck out only batter faced, Kent Hrbek ...Worked 0.2 scoreless innings in Game 5 (0 H, 0 R, 0 BB, 0 K's).

PRO CAREER: 1990:--Compiled solid rookie season after being recalled from AAA Richmond on June 28 ...Converted into a reliever by Braves, Mercker tied club record for most saves by a lefty Atlanta relief pitcher with 7 (set previously by Paul Assenmacher in 1986 and Mike Stanton in 1989) ...Recorded 7 saves in 10 opportunities ...Earned first M.L. win on July 7 vs. New York, and nailed down first M.L. save July 17 vs. Philadelphia ...Went 4-1 with 1 save in a 7-game stretch July 7-24, before dropping final 6 decisions ...Allowed only 6 ER's in first 28.0 IP (1.93 ERA in 18 games through August 15) ...Reeled off 4 saves in 5 appearances August 22-September 4.

1989:--Voted second-best prospect and top pitcher in the International League after impressive first season at AAA Richmond ...At age 21, Mercker led the I.L. in strikeouts (144) while allowing only 107 hits in 168.2 innings pitched ...Hurled 4 complete games in 27 starts at AAA Richmond ...Named to '89 AAA All-Star team ...Called up to Atlanta on Sept. 6, and made his M.L. debut in relief on September 22, vs. Cincinnati (2.0IP, 4H, 3ER).

1988:--Shared Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in the Carolina League, where he was 11-4 with a 2.68 ERA for A Durham ...Represented Durham in All-Star game ...His 159 strikeouts (in 127.2 IP) were third and his 6 complete games were 6th in the league ...Allowed just 102 hits ...Continued his strikeout and hits-per-inning success at Greenville (60K's, 36H, 48.1IP) ...Won the second annual Phil Niekro Award as the outstanding pitcher in Braves' minor league system.

Mercker (Continued)

1987:--Missed nearly the whole season after suffering elbow injury in April and undergoing surgery in May.

1986:--T2nd on Bradenton (Rookie) staff with 4 wins, while posting 2.47 ERA.

PERSONAL/MISC.:--Full name KENT FRANKLIN MERCKER ...Married, wife's name is Julie ...A 1986 graduate of Dublin (OH) High School, where he was named Central Ohio Player-of-the-Year three times.

Greg Olson #10

POSITION: C

BATS: R      THROWS: R

HT: 6' 0"      WT: 200

OPENING DAY AGE: 31

BORN: 9/6/60 at Marshall, MN

RESIDES: Edina, MN

M.L. SERVICE: 2 + 013

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru '92

ACQUIRED: Signed by the Braves as a six-year minor league free agent on November 6, 1989.

1991 SEASON:-- Contributed yeoman work behind the plate during stretch drive, catching all but two innings over 32 consecutive games from September 1 - October 5 ...Although batting average tailed off over final month, Olson remained a dangerous hitter in clutch situations, batting an outstanding .373 (19x51) with runners in scoring position and two outs ...Accounted for 7 RBI in 9 games from September 25-October 4 ...Ranked second among N.L. catchers with a .995 fielding pct. (committed only four errors in 127 games) ...Started season on fire, batting .484 (15x31) in 14 games through May 11 ...Compiled his first four-hit game in majors on June 9 vs. Montreal ...Batted .287 (58x202) at home and .290 (29x100) vs. left-handed pitchers ...Threw out 22 of 108 base stealers (20%).

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Provided offensive spark by batting .333 (8x24), matching Brian Hunter for Braves' highest L.C.S. batting average ...Went 0x4 in Game 1, then struck for eight hits in next 18 AB's (.444) ...Smacked a two-run homer in Game 3, capping a four-run first inning ...Also stole second in Game 3, after recording one stolen base all season ...His 4 RBI in L.C.S. tied Brian Hunter for team high ...Hit .222 (6x27) in World Series, with 1 RBI ...Added another post-season stolen base in Game 5 ...Caught all but one inning in 14 post-season games.

PRO CAREER: 1990:--Olson, who entered the 1990 campaign with 2 AB's in the Majors to show for eight years in professional ball, began season as catcher at AAA Richmond ...Three months later, with aid of some fortunate breaks, Olson found himself at Chicago's Wrigley Field as Braves' 1990 All-Star representative ...A 29-year-old rookie, Olson was sent to AAA after Braves acquired C Phil Lombardi from Mets just prior to opening day ...At that time, Atlanta also asked C John Russell, ranked ahead of Olson on the club's depth chart, to report to Richmond; he refused, and became a free agent ...Lombardi then suddenly retired the day before the start of regular season ...With Russell gone, club plucked Olson from Richmond roster and handed him job of third-string-catcher ...Slow starts by Davis and Whitt finally led club to give opportunity to Olson, who responded with All-Star caliber performance ...Made Braves debut on April 22 at Cincinnati and proceeded to hit .371 (13x53) over first 16 games through May 17, capping off his hot streak with a two-homer, 5-RBI performance May 17 vs. Pittsburgh, in Atlanta ...Caught fire again, batting .451 (23x51) in 15 games June 6-24, raising his average to .316 ...Included in that stretch was a grand slam at Cincinnati June 12 (1st game) ...Became first Braves rookie to be selected to All-Star squad since Ron Reed in 1968.

1989:--Hit .235 in 79 games at AAA Portland ...Threw out 25 of 45 runners attempting to steal (56%) .

1988:--His .267 average for AAA Tidewater ranked ninth in the International League ...Tossed out 39 base runners in 112 attempts (35%).

1987:--Hit .283 in 47 games for Tidewater.

1986:--Began season at AA Jackson, and led Texas League receivers by taking part in 10 double plays ...Promoted to Tidewater late in year, batting .327 for the Tides in 19 games.

1985:--In second full season in AA ball, Olson hit .270 in 69 games.

1984:--Although he hit only .235 for Jackson, Olson struck out only 16 times in 234 at-bats, an average of one every 14.6 at-bats.

1983:--Topped Carolina League catchers in games played (107), putouts (881), assists (82), total chances (973) and fielding percentage (.990).

1982:--Began his pro career at A Lynchburg.

PERSONAL/MISC.:--Full name GREGORY WILLIAM OLSON ...Married the former Lisa Fore ...One son, Ryan William ...Graduated from Edina East High School in 1979 ...As a senior third baseman, was baseball squad's team captain and MVP ...Was also All-State in baseball and All-State quarterback in football in senior year ...Attended the University of Minnesota, where he became a catcher as a freshman ...Posted collegiate BA's of .370, .391 and .363 ...Received second-team All-American honors in 1981 and '82.

Player Development and Scouting

Chuck LaMar

Director of Scouting and Player Development

Chuck LaMar, who, at 35, already has a wealth of experience in baseball personnel work, joined the Atlanta Braves as Director of Scouting and Player Development on November 19, 1990. He had been the Pittsburgh Pirates' Director of Minor League Operations the previous two years.

LaMar, who as a scouting supervisor for the Cincinnati Reds from January of 1985 until November of 1988 signed ten 40-man roster players including Major leaguers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder, Steve Foster, Fred Beneviedes and Rosario Rodriguez. During that period he was also instrumental in the the Reds' signing a working agreement with Nuevo Laredo. It was the first such agreement between a Major League team and a club in the Mexican League.

The head baseball coach at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton, Texas, in 1984 and 1985, LaMar was an assistant coach at Indiana University form 1981 through 1983 and head coach at Houston's St. Thomas High School in 1979 and 1980.

LaMar, a native of Twin Falls, Idaho, grew up in Houston, where he attended Madison High School.

He and his wife, Cheryl, have two children: Sarah (9) and Emily (7).

Rod Gilbreath

Assistant Director of Player Development

Rod Gilbreath, an Atlanta infielder in the mid 1970's and Assistant Director of Scouting from 1985 through 1990, was named the Braves' Assistant Director of Player Development prior to the 1991 season.

A third round pick of the Braves in the 1970 June draft, Gilbreath started his pro career at Twin Falls that year. He was selected the Western Carolinas League Most Valuable Player while at Greenwood in 1971 and made it to Atlanta for part of the 1972 season. He hit .248 with 14 homers and 125 RBI in a seven-year Major League career.

Signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent, he finished his playing career with Portland in 1979 and 1980.

Gilbreath joined the Braves as a scout in the fall of 1982 and three years later became Assistant Director of Scouting. He managed the Braves' rookie farm club at Idaho Falls in 1986 and 1987, earning Pioneer League Manager of the Year honors his first season there.

He and his wife, Donna, have two sons; Brian (15) and Clint (11) and reside in Stone Mountain, GA.

Scott Proefrock

Assistant Director of Scouting

Scott Proefrock joined the Braves as the Assistant Director of Scouting on December 3, 1990. He came to Atlanta from the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he had been an assistant for baseball operations the previous year. He began his professional baseball career when he was named the Pirates' Director of Management Information Systems in November of 1987.

Proefrock, a 31-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from William & Mary in 1982 and a master's in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1987.

Bobby Dews

Field Coordinator

Bobby Dews, named minor league field coordinator before the 1991 season, has been with the Braves as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975.

Dews, who turns 53 on March 23, is responsible for supervising instruction throughout the Braves' minor league system.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as the Braves' Director of Player Development in December of 1989, and had previously been the assistant director of player development for two years. He had served as a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' farm system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League Division championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager-of-the-Year honors.

Dews, a coach with the major league Braves from 1979-1981 and again in 1985, was a shortstop in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970. Advancing as far as AAA, Dews' best season was in 1964, when he hit .277 with 40 RBI for Tulsa of the AA Texas League.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Dews graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech. He was an outstanding baseball and basketball player there, being selected the Southeastern Conference's basketball Defensive-Player-of-the-Year in 1960. Dews and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana (12).

The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with ten hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic of the first order, with Minnesota prevailing in a seven-game epic encounter. Four games were decided on the final pitch, five in the last inning and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Game Three tied for the longest Series game in innings since 1916 (and at four hours, four minutes, became the longest night game in Series history) before being decided by Mark Lemke's two-out, 12th-inning single that lifted the Braves to a 5-4 triumph. Lemke struck again in the 9th inning of Game Four with a one-out triple, and scored the winning run on Jerry Willard's sacrifice fly as Atlanta claimed a 3-2 victory that evened the Series at two games each. In Game Five, the Braves set an N.L. record with 34 total bases in a 14-5 romp that saw Lemke extend his tour de force with two more triples, giving him three triples in his last four at-bats (on his way to batting .417 for the Series). Lonnie Smith homered for the third consecutive game, becoming the first player in N.L. Series history to accomplish the feat. David Justice added his second homer and tied an N.L. Series mark with 5 RBI. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing one more victory to claim their first world title since 1957, but Kirby Puckett's 11th-inning homer in Game Six and Jack Morris' 10-inning, 1-0 shutout in Game Seven led the Twins to the championship in what has been described as the hardest-fought World Series in baseball history.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves. The Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning to take the first game in Atlanta, 9-5. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers failed to stop the Mets as New York won, 11-6. Then, in the final game on Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth finished the Braves' hopes, with the final score, 7-4.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games. The Cardinals exploded for five runs in the sixth inning to take the first game at St. Louis, 7-0. In game two, the Cardinals scored single runs in the eighth and ninth innings to gain the win. The Braves returned to Atlanta for game three but could fare no better as St. Louis quickly scored four runs in the second inning in a 6-2 win.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games Two and Six (with 9th-inning relief help in both games from Alejandro Pena); Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game Seven in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh. Meanwhile, the Pirates' staff was holding Atlanta scoreless over a 26-inning stretch from Games Four through Six. Ronnie Gant set an NLCS mark with seven stolen bases, while Brian Hunter and Greg Olson each contributed a team-high four RBI. Hunter's three-run homer in the first inning of Game Seven proved to be the decisive blow in the 4-0 finale. Atlanta's pitching staff compiled a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense (.263 BA), the lowest ERA since the Phillies staff spun a 1.03 ERA in the 1983 NLCS vs. Los Angeles. The Braves became only the third team in NLCS history to win the final two games on the road; and most noteworthy, Atlanta emerged as the first team in history to go from baseball's worst record one season to the World Series the next.

Braves Historical Highlights

Braves History

- 1901 - In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.
- 1902- Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.
- 1912- The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.
- 1914- The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.
- 1928- Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.
- 1935- Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.
- 1936- The Braves name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.
- 1938- Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.
- 1947- Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.
- 1948- This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie of the Year award.
- 1950- Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie of the Year award.
- 1952- Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.
- 1953- The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47 and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.
- 1954- Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.
- 1956- Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.
- 1957- The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.
- 1958- In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

- 1959- It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.
- 1960- Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21 but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.
- 1961- Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.
- 1963- Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.
- 1964- The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).
- 1965- The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.
- 1966- The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.
- 1967- Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to seventh in the league standings.
- 1968- In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.
- 1969- The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.
- 1970- Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.
- 1971- Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.
- 1972- Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by all-time Braves third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star game in Atlanta for the first time.
- 1973- The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson's total set a Major League record for second basemen. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.
- 1974- Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.
- 1975- The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.
- 1976- The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.
- 1977- Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

- 1978- Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie of the Year award.
- 1979- Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games.
- 1980- Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and Murphy responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.
- 1981- A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.
- 1982- Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series.
- 1983- Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.
- 1984- Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.
- 1985- Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.
- 1986- Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.
- 1987- Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI's and career-high 44 homers. Dion James' .312 batting average was fifth best in the National League and Gerald Perry set an Atlanta record with 42 stolen bases.
- 1988- Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team high 29 stolen bases. Ron Gant finished 4th in voting for N.L. Rookie of the Year, leading all newcomers with 19 homers and 60 RBI.
- 1989- The Braves started the season at 17-17 through May 11, but injuries to Tommy Gregg, Lonnie Smith and Gerald Perry disrupted the offense and the team never fully recovered, finishing at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR's (21) and RBI (79). He also stole 25 bases, scored 89 runs and led the N.L. with a .415 on-base percentage. His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.
- 1990- The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades. Ron Gant rebounded from a forgettable 1989 to become the 13th player in Major League history (and third Brave) to hit at least 30 homers and steal 30 bases.
- 1991- In a season so improbable that a Hollywood scriptwriter would dismiss the storyline as fantasy, the Braves became the first team in history to reach the World Series one year after having baseball's worst record. New General Manager John Schuerholz had altered the makeup of the club by acquiring a combination of defense, speed, leadership and late-inning relief in the persons of free agents Terry Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard, Mike Heath, Juan Berenguer and Deion Sanders, in addition to retaining second look free-agent Charlie Leibrandt. On April 1, Schuerholz obtained speedster Otis Nixon from the Expos, who in a short time became the most feared leadoff man in the National League. On June 16 at Montreal, Nixon tied the Major League record by stealing six bases in a game on his way to setting a franchise record of 72 stolen bases. After spending a few days in first place in mid-May, injuries to Bream and David Justice slowed the Braves, who reached the All-Star break in third place at 39-40, 9.5 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Braves' lone All-Star was Tom Glavine, who earned the National League starting assignment with a 12-4 mark and a 1.98 ERA. Atlanta sliced seven games off L.A.'s lead in 12 days to reenter the race, with contributions from virtually everyone: John Smoltz, 2-11 in the first half, went 12-2 after the break; Ron Gant posted his second straight 30-30 season; 21-year-old Steve Avery had 18 wins; Nixon reeled off a 20-game hitting streak; rookie Brian Hunter supplied power at first base in the absence of Bream; Leibrandt added 15 wins; Greg Olson caught 32 straight games down the stretch; Francisco Cabrera struck a key two-out, three-run homer off Rob Dibble in the 9th inning at Cincinnati on August 21, tying the contest at 9-9 (Braves won in 13); Berenguer saved 17 games in 18 opportunities before being lost to an injury in mid-August; Alejandro Pena, obtained by Schuerholz from the Mets on August 29 to replace the fallen Berenguer, notched 11 saves in as many chances, and teamed with Kent Mercker and Mark Wohlers for the first combined no-hitter in National League history on September 11 vs. San Diego. The Braves caught fire after the return of Justice and Bream in late August, but were dealt a blow by the loss of Nixon, suspended on September 16 for violating the Commissioner's Office drug policy and after-care program. Lonnie Smith replaced Nixon in the lineup and consistently reached base over the season's final three weeks. Schuerholz brought back Sanders on a part-time basis from his NFL duties with the Falcons to give the Braves late-inning speed off the bench. Atlanta went 6-0 on their last road trip, highlighted by a comeback from a first-inning, 6-0 deficit to Jose Rijo and the Reds on October 1, when Justice launched a two-run homer off Dibble in the 9th. Tied with Los Angeles with three games left, the Braves clinched their first National League West title since 1982 by beating the Astros twice while Los Angeles was losing two games at San Francisco. The Braves set an Atlanta record with 94 wins (55-28 in the second half) and an attendance mark of 2,140,217. Atlanta then went on to rebound from a three games to two deficit on the road and shut out the Pirates in games six and seven of the National League Championship Series to bring Atlanta its first-ever World Series. Avery claimed MVP honors after hurling 16.1 scoreless innings and Gant set an N.L.C.S. mark with seven stolen bases. The World Series was widely considered among the most exciting ever, with Mark Lemke turning the games into a personal showcase by hitting .417 with three triples and Smith setting an N.L. record by homering in three straight Series contests. Despite extra-inning losses in Games 6 and 7, 750,000 tomahawk-chopping fans threw the Braves the biggest parade in Atlanta history. Post-season awards were almost too numerous to count: Glavine, who tied for the N.L. lead with 20 wins, captured the second Cy Young Award in franchise history; Pendleton won the N.L. batting title and the league's Most Valuable Player Award; Bobby Cox was named N.L. Manager of the Year by the BBWAA and AP; Schuerholz earned N.L. Executive of the Year honors from UPI, while BASEBALL AMERICA recognized the Braves' championship season by naming Atlanta the 1991 Organization of the Year.

Braves' Best Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons.

Warren Spahn-	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch
Jim Wilson-	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt-	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams-	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler-	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
George Stone-	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez-	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine-	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.

1992 Braves Radio/ TV

1992 Braves Radio and Television

The Atlanta Braves, TBS and NewsRadio 640 WGST and FM 95 WPCH join together for the first time in 1992 to provide Braves' fans with the best in sports broadcasting. TBS Superstation is televising 123 games in 1992, including 60 regular season home games, 63 regular season away games and three spring training games. TBS carries the Braves into more than 58 million homes throughout the United States and the Caribbean.

NewsRadio 640 WGST and FM 95 WPCH are the new home of the Atlanta Braves Radio Network. NewsRadio 640 WGST (50,000 watts) will carry all 162 regular season games and sister station FM 95 WPCH (100,000 watts) will simulcast all games beginning after 5:00 pm. With approximately 150 stations in Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Virginia, the Braves Radio Network will reach more listeners than ever before.

In addition, SportSouth, a Southeast regional cable television network launched by Ted Turner and several partners in August of 1990, will televise 25 Braves games, 12 from Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium and 13 from the road. Ernie Johnson, associated with the Braves as a player, staff member and broadcaster for more than 40 years until his "retirement" after the 1989 season, and Chip Caray, the play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and the son of Skip, will be the on-the-air talent. SportSouth already reaches more than 2.6 million homes.

1992 Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

Skip Caray, a seven-time winner of the Georgia Broadcaster of the Year award, enters his 17th season with the Braves in 1992. Caray also did play-by-play for the Atlanta Hawks for 14 seasons, is a former radio sports talk show host, broadcast Florida State football games for one season and currently announces Atlanta Hawks games for TBS.

Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children; Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Joshua.

Pete Van Wieren

Pete Van Wieren, who won Georgia Broadcaster of the Year honors for 1988, 1989 and 1990 is in his 17th season as a voice of the Braves. Van Wieren has now earned that prestigious award four times, the first having come in 1980. He began his Major League broadcasting career with the Braves in 1976 after working as a play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football, currently spending his baseball off-seasons doing the NBA on TNT.

Pete and his wife, Elaine, live in Tucker, GA. They have two children; Steven and Jon.

Don Sutton

Don Sutton joined the Braves' broadcast crew in 1989, after concluding a 23-year Major League career during which he won 324 games and participated in four World Series and four All-Star games. As a broadcaster, he has done network coverage of both the playoffs and World Series, as well as filling in as a sportscaster on KNBC in Los Angeles. He has also covered golf for TBS.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson joins TBS Sports for the 1992 Atlanta Braves baseball season after serving as an analyst for the Seattle Mariners telecasts for the past five years.

An All-American outfielder / first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson went on to play professionally for 11 seasons. He began his career in 1973 as a third round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers. After several brief stints with the parent club, Simpson joined the Seattle Mariners prior to the start of the 1979 season. He remained in the Major Leagues with the Mariners until shortly before the 1983 season, when he was traded to the Kansas City Royals.

Simpson resides in Elkhorn, NE.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until opening day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Rules of Interest, (Continued)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Waiver Rule

Major League Baseball's Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for major league service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Medical Glossary

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct: Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess: An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct: Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anaphylactic Shock: Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome: Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament: A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is often times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration: The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Asymptomatic: Without symptoms.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis: Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avascularity: When controlling bleeding.

Avulsion: The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Axilla: The armpit.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bennett's Fracture: A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Blowout Fracture: A fracture of the cavity containing the eyeball and its associated muscles that can be a result of a direct blow to the eye or cheek.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus: Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand and fingers.

Bruise: A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

C.P.R.: Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneofibular Ligament: The ligament that connects the fibula to the calcaneus.

Calf: Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon.

Capsule: An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Medical Glossary, (Continued)

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cellulitis: Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae: Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse: A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture: Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle: The collar bone.

Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Cold Pack: A pack of natural or synthetic ice that is applied to any injury in order to minimize blood flow in the area to control the injury.

Collagen Substance: Existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Colles' Fracture: A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT): Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction: A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital: Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis: Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Connective Tissue Theory: Microscopic tissue trauma, thought to be brought on by explosive or ballistic movements.

Contractures: Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral: Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

CPM: Constant passive motion devices used in the early stage of knee rehabilitation.

Cranium: Framework of the head consisting of eight cranial bones, 14 bones of the face and the teeth.

Cryokinetics: Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement: Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration: Loss of body water.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscle at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Distal: Term referencing one anatomical term away from another; for example, the hand is distal to the elbow.

Dorsiflexion: Ankle motion such that the foot and toes are moved away from the ground in an upward fashion.

Dorsum: The back, the back surface of any part.

Dysfunction: Unable to function normally as a body organ or system.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction: An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; often times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis: Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy: Suffix connoting surgical removal of the affected part.

Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Efferent: Away from, pushing toward the center.

Effusion: Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Medical Glossary, (Continued)

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS): An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte: Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells, including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride: "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

Eversion: Action of the ankle turning outward.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

External Rotation: Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Extrinsic: From without.

Fascia: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise: General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Flexion: Motion of bending a joint as achieved by a flexor muscle.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb: Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

Glycogen: Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup: Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack: Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliac Crest: Lateral edge of the hip; generally the site of a hip pointer.

Illiobtibial Band: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Induced Erythrocythemia: "Blood doping."

Inferior: Anatomically beneath, lower, or toward the bottom.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Innervation: The distribution or supply of nerve fibers or nerve impulses to a part of the body.

Intermittent Compression Pump: Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation: Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane: Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions; to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Intrinsic: Inherent or inside.

Iontophoresis: The use of constant direct current to drive heavy metal ions into and through the skin.

Isokinetic Exercise: Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cyubex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Isotonic Contraction: A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

"Itis": Suffix connoting inflammation.

Joint Mobilization: Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanisms can occur as the player moves.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidule): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral: To the outside of the body.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Lesion: Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus: Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is the fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.

Mallet Finger: Injury of the finger tip in which the extension tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.

Manipulation: A passive movement using physiological or accessory motion which may be applied with a thrust or when the player is under anesthesia.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2): The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial: To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy: An intra-articular surgical procedure for the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morbidity: An illness or abnormal condition or quality.

Morton's Neuroma: Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe: A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica: A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

Necrotic: Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene: Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation to the area.

Neuritis: Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process: Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum: The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dissecans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Paresthesia: Sensation of numbness or tingling, indication of nerve irritation.

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis: Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper knee."

Patellofemoral Joint: Articulation of the kneecap and femur.

Pectorals: Chest muscles beneath breast that lead up to the shoulder.

Peroneal Muscles: Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx: Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis: Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis: The technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar: Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia: The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis: Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion: Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica: Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax: A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior: At the back part, or rear of the body.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE): An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Pronation: In the foot, it is a combination of motions resulting in a position such that the foot is abducted and everted. Foot pronation can be a by-product of an arch problem, leg length discrepancy, or chronically bad running mechanics; can be compromised with the use of an orthotic.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF): An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Proximal: Near the source, nearest any point being described.

Q-Angle: Normal angle of quadriceps relative to the patella. The normal angle for males is 10 degrees.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography: Taking of x-rays.

Radius: Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain: Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Resect: To cut off, or cut out a portion of a structure or organ.

Retraction: The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SC Joint: Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the siatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn: A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Sorbothane: An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm Theory: Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spinous Process: A small projection off the posterior portion of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles or ligaments of the spine.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis: Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthes: Forward displacement of one vertebra over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum: The breast bone.

Medical Glossary, (Continued)

Steroids: Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray: A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching: Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior: In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Supination: Movement of the forearm into a palm-up position.

Synchronous: Moving or operating together at the same rate.

Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate: A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals: Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ): The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow: General term for lateral elbow strain.

Tenosynovitis: Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

Thermotherapy: Use of heat to treat a disease or disorder.

Thoracic: Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulates with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome: A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph: A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea: The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius: Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasonography: Process by which the reflection of high-frequency sound waves is used to develop an image of a structure.

Valgus: Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus: Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction: Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation: Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Zygoma: The cheekbone.

The Ultimate Seventh-Inning Stretch.

The Atlanta Braves 1992 Media Guide

Stretch your legs and your imagination. We'll fly you to Hawaii, Bermuda, the Bahamas or the Caribbean. And with our low fares, your stretch could even go extra innings.
